

STEWART ROSENBERG
32 Country Way Madison, CT 06443
U.S.A.

Direct Land-line Main Office ---- (203) 421-0028
Direct Cell Communication ----- (203) 376-7568 (preferred)

July 2019
to Present

Co-founder and Chief Financial Officer
Verivas Solutions Inc. Stamford, CT. Medical Device “Early Discovery” Innovation Incubator.

September 1987
to Present

President, Chief Executive Officer, and Chairman of the Board
BIO-INVESTIGATIONS LTD., Madison, CT. Specialized international health care venture capital firm focused on assisting new companies secure senior financing, and intermediate companies identify technologies for acquisition or investment.
Key component is the negotiation and acquisition of exclusive worldwide licenses from leading universities, including partnering or sublicensing to major multinational pharmaceutical,
chemical, and medical device companies.

September 1980
to Present

Instructor / Adjunct Professor / Professor / Two-Year Special Appointment – Chemistry and Biochemistry – CCSU / State of Connecticut-including faculty assignments in (a) Biochemistry and Chemistry; (b) Descriptive and Inferential Statistics; and (c)
Organizational Management. WHARTON (PENN), UNIVERSITY OF NEW HAVEN, SOUTHERN CONNECTICUT STATE UNIVERSITY, CENTRAL CONNECTICUT STATE UNIVERSITY, UNIVERSITY OF CONNECTICUT, GATEWAY COMMUNITY COLLEGE,
TUNXIS COMMUNITY COLLEGE, AND MIDDLESEX
COMMUNITY COLLEGE.

Specialized faculty appointments for over forty years encompassing a unique education with corporate experience and positioning, all at the interface of business, science, technology and statistics. Assignments have been cherry-picked yearly to embrace appointments at leading ivy league universities as well as world-class community college programs, to provide education to very diverse populations. Current FY 2020-2021 assignment is Descriptive and Inferential Statistics, LRON (Learning Remote Online Synchronous), utilizing Microsoft Teams, at Middlesex
Community College, Middletown, CT

November 1986 to August 1987	President BIOS Corporation, New Haven, CT Innovative biotechnology company focused initially on meeting the needs of the molecular biologist. Company addresses research market, clinical/diagnostic markets/plant and agricultural markets. Products include standardized DNA blots and related instrumentation useful in assessing an individual's predisposition to virtually any medical disorder. Primary responsibilities include meeting all financial goals of the corporation as well as administration of the senior staff. Responsible for all Marketing, Sales, and Strategic Planning activities of the Company. Member of the Board of Directors. (Company initial financing via Angel and subsequently by ICF – Washington / Fairfax, VA)
May 1986 to October 1986	Vice-President -- Sales and Marketing INTERNATIONAL BIOTECHNOLOGIES, INC. Major biotechnology company focusing in the molecular biology field, with an integrated product system approach of interrelating biologicals, reagents, instruments, and software to expedite results. Customers include numerous universities, research institutions, and businesses worldwide. Responsibilities include all Marketing, Sales and Strategic Planning activities for the company. (Company Purchased by Eastman Kodak Scientific Systems.)
March 1986 to April 1986	Director – Marketing and Strategic Planning INTERNATIONAL BIOTECHNOLOGIES, INC Responsible for Marketing and Strategic Planning activities for the company both in the United States and abroad. (Company financed by Prime Capital – Dean Fenton -- Exit via acquisition by Eastman Kodak)
November 1984 to February 1986	Manager – Technology / New Ventures EM DIAGNOSTIC SYSTEMS, Inc. Subsidiary of E. Merck, Darmstadt, Germany Leading pharmaceutical and chemical company as the focal point of a group of companies abroad and with agencies in over 70 countries. Responsibilities include the evaluation of North American medical/biomedical/chemical technologies, products, and publicly/privately held corporations for possible acquisition. Establish a system by which we can react quickly to new business opportunities. Manage the new business evaluation process until a decision is made. Monitor external technology developments for

opportunities and threats, and, in conjunction with R&D management, recommend appropriate action. Establish and administer a strategic planning function for the North American market. Define strategic alternatives based on awareness of the environment and possible competitive actions. Establish and administer the planning cycle---preparation of plans by line managers, prereview analysis, review by top management, post-review follow-up, and linkage with operating budget.

July 1983
to
October 1984

Manager of New Programs
CENTOCOR, Inc.

Leading biotechnology firm utilizing the capabilities of monoclonal antibodies in the production of in vitro and in vivo (imaging and therapeutic) medical products. Worldwide distribution network. Responsibilities include management of all new programs in the company. Serve as the liaison between Sales and Marketing, R&D, Production, QC and QA, PD, and Regulatory Affairs. (Acquired by Johnson & Johnson, for $4.9B)

Manager of In Vivo Diagnostic Business
CENTOCOR, Inc.

Responsibilities include the establishment of financial forecast(s) as part of the financial plan/business objectives; establishment of distribution channels for various lines and signoff of product plan proposals for all products in product development. Development of worldwide market plan and three to five-year business plan for in vivo business---strategic planning, tactics, and targets (financial, non-financial, cost, and timing).

October 1981
to
June 1983

Technology Center Manager - Imaging
CENTOCOR, Inc.

Product Management, Market Research, and Strategic Planning. Coordinated all clinical studies for 17 1A, 19-9, OC125, and BR Antibodies both in the United States and abroad. Corporate partners under management included Nihon Medi-Physics, Hoffman La Roche/Medi Physics, and CEA.

June 1976
to
September 1981

Research Associate II; Acting Head; Head
THE WILLS EYE HOSPITAL AND RESEARCH INSTITUTE
Department of Biochemistry

First ophthalmic hospital in the western Hemisphere, today serving more patients than any other eye center in the world. Responsible for preparation of grant proposals in the area of lens metabolism and cataractogenesis, as well as the development of fiscal budgets for laboratory operations. Developed new biochemical models within eye research.

Coordinator of Field Work Efforts; Biochemist

THE CHILDREN'S HOSPITAL OF PHILADELPHIA (CHOP)
250+ bed facility representing the pediatric department of The University of Pennsylvania, specializing in the care and treatment of children locally and on referral from other institutions worldwide. Responsible for educating the public on relationship between lipase levels and premature arteriosclerosis. Devised medical history format, developed statistical analysis package, and collected and processed over 1400 samples in a twelve-month period.

Research Assistant / Research Technician / Phlebotomist

AMERICAN RED CROSS
UNIVERSITY OF CONNECTICUT MEDICAL CENTER
UNIVERSITY OF PENNSYLVANIA MEDICAL CENTER
AMERICAN RED CROSS
MT. SINAI HOSPITAL, HARTFORD, CT – ICU AND NURSERY
Analyzed interaction of lectins with murine neuroblastoma cells. Devised radioactive binding assays. Purified DNA Polymerase for enzyme characterization studies. Coordinated separation of blood into components for distribution to hospital laboratories.

EDUCATION

- 1979 - 1981 Post-Masters Program. THOMAS JEFFERSON UNIVERSITY MEDICAL CENTER
Course emphasis in biostatistics and biochemical techniques.
- 1977 - 1979 A.B.A. Business Administration. WHARTON.
Financial, corporate, and managerial accounting; statistics; and management. High Honors Graduate.
- 1974 - 1976 M.S. Biochemistry. UNIVERSITY OF PENNSYLVANIA.
Faculty-Staff Scholar.
- 1970 - 1973 B.A. Biochemistry. UNIVERSITY OF CONNECTICUT.
Phi Beta Kappa, Phi Kappa Phi, State of CT Scholar, Honors Scholar.

PROFESSIONAL AFFILIATIONS AND ACCOMPLISHMENTS

- *American Cancer Society Board of Directors.
 - *University of CT Honors Program Advisory Board.
 - *Language interpreter for medical reviews at The Children's Hospital of Philadelphia and for conferences at the International House of Philadelphia.
 - *Member, Radiologic Society of North America and The Society of Nuclear Medicine.
 - *Member, Technology Advisory Council, Advanced Biomedical Technologies for the review of State of PA proposals/legislation -- $66 million over three years.
 - *City of New Haven Biotechnology Council.
 - *Advisory Board – School of Business, Central Connecticut State University, with the goal of securing accreditation for the SOB as an elite member of AACSB International – The Association to Advance Collegiate Schools of Business -- (successful accreditation secured.)
- *2020 – Present: Focus is as Treasurer, on the Board of Directors, ¹Madison Interfaith Residential Community, Inc. dba Concord Meadows, Madison, CT. Since joining the Board of Directors in 2019 we have secured two Small Cities Grants, in the amounts of $600K and $1.5M, respectively.

PERSONAL

Born 13 June 1952; Hartford, CT. Married. Two sons.
Publications and references available on request.
Enjoy swimming, tennis, chess, and bicycling.

Bilingual: Spanish - English.

¹Madison Interfaith Residential Community, Inc. is organized as a non-profit corporation to provide housing for the elderly and other eligible occupants as determined by the United States Department of Agriculture Rural Development (RD) regulations. It has constructed and operates an apartment complex of 90 units, known as Concord Meadows, located in Madison, CT. The project is regulated by RD as to rent charges and operating methods.